

Alaska Close Up

As part of their Government curriculum, students in grades 8-11 traveled to Juneau recently to attend Alaska Close Up. They learned about and observed how the Alaska Constitution gives powers to the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Branches. Among many other things, they observed the Senate in session, attended Legislative meetings, met with Governor Michael Dunleavy, Lt. Governor Kevin Meyer, and Senator Peter Micciche, toured the Capitol building and the Governor’s residence, and visited two museums—the Alaska State Museum and the Juneau-Douglas City Museum.
